Not sure if a Term Life policy is right for you?

Enclosed is some helpful information to get you started. Then, you can talk with your American Family agent who can help you choose a policy specifically for you.

American Family Life Insurance Company also offers a number of supplemental coverages that you can purchase to enhance your Term Life Insurance policy. Ask your agent for details.
Q: What is Term Life Insurance?
A: Term Life Insurance is just what it sounds like; a policy that will remain in effect for a specific term or length of time. This type of coverage can provide financial protection for temporary obligations or can provide an option for protection in a time when permanent life insurance is unaffordable. Unlike Whole Life or Universal Life insurance, Term Life policies do not accumulate a cash value.

American Family Insurance offers three different term policies: 10-year, 20-year and 30-year. These are level term policies which means that the premiums and coverage amounts stay the same for the term you choose.

Neither American Family Life Insurance Company nor its agents are authorized to give tax or legal advice, and this should not be construed as such advice.

Q: How is a Term Life Insurance policy benefit paid out?
A: The benefit is paid in the event that the policy is active when the insured passes away.

Q: Will I need a physical exam for this type of life insurance?
A: Probably, but keep in mind that American Family offers competitive rates for those who take good care of themselves by making healthy lifestyle choices. An added benefit of a Term Life policy is that you may be able to convert to permanent life insurance with the same amount of coverage during a specified period and no medical examination is required. Another good reason to purchase now when you’re young.

Q: What kind of people generally purchase Term Life Insurance?
A: This type of life insurance is popular with younger people who are just starting their families or new homeowners with a mortgage, especially if budgets are tight. It may allow you to purchase a larger amount of coverage at a very reasonable cost. Also, a Term Life policy may provide funds that can help keep a business running in the event of the businessowner’s death without burdening family members or business partners.

Q: What happens after the initial term of my policy expires?
A: The policy may be renewed with increased premiums, for additional one year terms of coverage, up to the policy anniversary nearest age 95.

Q: I’m young and single. I don’t have any children either. Do I really need life insurance?
A: Although planning for your future can be done at any time, we believe the earlier, the better. In general, the younger you are when purchasing the policy, the more affordable the premiums will be. So planning now to protect your future family is a smart idea.

Q: Is Term Life Insurance more affordable than other types of life insurance?
A: Yes, typically the initial cost of Term Life Insurance is less than a Universal Life or a Whole Life Insurance policy and remains the same throughout the initial term. However, after the initial term, the premiums will increase. The policyowner has the option to convert to permanent life insurance during a specified period.
